

2024 CAF-IDAHO WATER SPORTS WEEKEND

Boise, Lucky Peak Reservoir, and Payette River, Idaho, July 25-28

EXPERIENCE

Despite being entirely landlocked, Idaho has incredible on-the-water recreation. Participants spent a day casting for native cutthroat trout on the Boise River, a day whitewater rafting on the Main Payette River, and catching some (wake) surf on Lucky Peak Reservoir. They also enjoyed two dinners and an afternoon of lawn games at the Idaho Outdoor Fieldhouse.

Tara McCarty said, "Killian got a super cool invite to try out a tetra watercraft!" Kumaka Jensen shared a social media video of himself wakesurfing and said, "I figured it out! Such a super fun day!" Heidi Pearson said, "This weekend was filled with wake surfing, fly fishing and corn hole competitions!"

BY THE NUMBERS

Whitewater rafting was led by Cascade Raft and Kayak, fishing was led by Idaho Anglers, wakesurfing was led by Wake for Warriors with support from Redline Recreational Toys with boat drivers Watts Barden, John Buehler, and Scott Kelly.

The whole crew was divided into groups of 8-12 to rotate through each activity with 27 total volunteers. 33 total athletes participated in at least one of the three sports!
